BRAZIL/WEST GERMANY

Economic

Visit to Brazil by Dr. H. J. Abs, Chairman of Deutsche Bank

1. The Chairman of the Deutsche Bank, ^{H. J. Abs} H. J. Abs, has accepted an invitation from the Brazilian government for a semi-official visit to Brazil during August 1965. The Deutsche Bank wishes to have an up-to-date direct assessment of the current economic situation in Brazil in view of the further considerable plans for private German investment in that country.

2. The German commercial banks are now prepared to assume new credit risks in Brazil but the Federal Government continues to strictly limit its export credit guarantee policy towards the country.

3. ~~Dr.~~ Abs is to spend 10 days in Brazil and during this period he plans to discuss with President ^{João Goulart} ~~BEANCO~~ and Brazilian government authorities possibilities for Brazilian acceptance of the so-called "Abs Charter" guaranteeing the inviolability of private property, which he sees as an important preliminary for new German investment.
